Footnotes

KING KELLY was not asked for speed early and raced unhurried to the turn, collected his stride from off the rail nearing the stretch, angled to the extreme outside leaving the furlong pole and offered a bold rally to get up late and won going away. MARSHAL MARINI stalked the pace early three wide, challenged for command two wide on the turn, forged to the front at the furlong pole but could not hold the winner late. STREAMSIDE set the pace from off the rail early, dropped inside for the turn but slackened once in the stretch. THINKING OF GIRLS tracked the leaders from the inside but failed to rally. ATTA BOY PETE stalked from the extreme outside to mid turn and faltered. CAFFEINE HIGH was never a factor.
