Footnotes

LANE STORMER chased the pace, from the inside, angled out on the turn and rallied, drifting four wide down the lane to grab the win. STRONG PUNCH pressed the pace early, then gained command at the half, making a bid but was outfinished late. DESERT JACK was near the back, three wide, offered a bid between horses and got up for show. KINGHADASTAR trailed the field, two wide, with a mild late effort. SILENT SUNDAY was mid pack, going two to three wide, with an even effort and passing a tired foe. RIVER GRADE TRICK had the early speed, with a brief lead, then faded at the five sixteenth pole.
