Footnotes

SUNKA CAT was mid field, then angled out around the turn, going four wide and rallied down the lane to get up late for the win. FLAPS chased the pace, angled out in the turn, made a bid, three wide and got up for place. DEPUTRESS was unhurried early, three wide, then closed in the stretch drive to get up for show. RED TAPPER had no early foot, but circled horses, to rally, five wide. GOLDEN M P stalked the pace from the inside, then angled out in the turn, made a bid but flattened out down the lane. KING OF THE DANCE was near the back, then offered a mild bid up the rail. FLASHY RED ODD'S made the lead, but gave way at the sixteenth pole. GOLD SWEEP was in the middle of the pack, six wide and faded. K O'S KICKER pressed the pace, three wide and retreated at the three eighths pole. ETERNAL WARRIOR was mid field, three wide and stopped at the quarter pole.
