Footnotes

DAB OF LIGHTNING was pushed to the front in the early stages, set a pressured pace to the turn, was collared by rivals nearing the stretch but battled gamely and held on stubbornly. PORTLAND STORM pressed the winner to the turn, made a bid four deep to get to terms nearing the quarter pole, drifted out some into the stretch but responded to pressure to deep stretch then could not get by. CLASSIELYTE was outsprinted early and got shuffled back a bit nearing the turn, swung out five wide and lost ground to the leaders into the stretch but was gaining again in the late stages. OKIE DOKIE PETEY pressed the pace early, was between rivals and three wide while dueling into the stretch then could not keep up and finished evenly. SEAFIRE had no speed, saved ground to the stretch but could not muster the needed response. STRENGTH chased the pace to the turn, was two wide then came up empty in the drive. BOBSTHEBIGDOG had no speed and was not a factor. UNIQUE EFFORT chased the pace three wide to the stretch then gave way.
