Footnotes

OLD TIMER took command after the second jump while racing in the two-path under a rating hold, held a clear lead over the second-last jump and was roused left-handed in the final sixteenth of a mile. MEMORIAL MANIAC dueled early, then stalked the pace to the far turn in the first circuit, pressed the winner on the inside to the tenth jump, challenged on the outside on the final turn and over the twelfth jump, altered course to the inside in the middle of the stretch and was put to right-hand urging. The jockey of MEMORIAL MANIAC claimed foul against the winner, alleging interference in the middle of the stretch. After a review, the stewards allowed the result to stand. QUADRANT (IRE) was in hand through nine jumps and closed some ground without threatening the top two. EZ MAC saved ground while trailing through the first circuit, improved his position after the eighth jump but had no rally approaching the stretch. LUCKY WILL dueled early on the outside, while taken in hand to stalk the leaders and came up empty on the far turn. PRIMERO PERU was well placed between horses while stalking the top two to the far turn and tired. SUMO POWER dueled for the early lead, pressed the pace through the first circuit and then tired.
