Footnotes

BELMONT ROAD quickly took command, was in hand when the runner-up challenged near the quarter pole, responded when asked inside the final furlong to gain the upper hand while his rider controlled the margin. MY TWO GREAT KIDS broke well to press the pace to the turn, rallied to gain a short lead entering the stretch and gave his all. HE AIN'T BLUFFING was outrun, went four-wide on the turn and had no rally. WINK AND A PROMISE was slow early and passed tiring rivals. DRUNKEN SPIDER pressed the pace into the turn and gave way. THEPRESIDENTALLION pressed the pace three-wide to the turn, tied and fanned five-wide. AERITRICK was four-wide and fanned six-wide into the stretch.
