Footnotes

VAN LEROY dueled on the outside to the backstretch, pressed the pace to the stretch, challenged for the lead in the upper stretch, prevailed under strong urging, fell near the seven-eighths pole, throwing and injuring his rider. HOLIDAY BOY dueled inside throughout and gave ground grudgingly. ANDY L was slow early, rallied inside on the second turn, loomed boldly entering the stretch but lacked a late response. WELCOME BACK was well placed to midway of the second turn and gave way. FOUR F'S AND A D was well placed to midway of the second turn and tired. DEVIL APPROVED IT pressed the pace to the three-eighths pole, tired, then shied from the fallen horse on the first turn and threw his rider. METEOR STREAK reared at the start and trailed.
