Footnotes

WANT AD was unhurried in the early going, advanced steadily along the inside, moved out to the three path near the three sixteenths pole where he was bumped by COLD SHOT when that one came out slightly, then shook clear. COLD SHOT tracked the pace for three quarters, reached a striking position out of the final turn, came out slightly at the three sixteenths pole, bumping the winner and was out finished. MY DIGGER set a pressured pace, held sway to the stretch then tired with a sixteenth remaining. MR. B. W. moved up to press the pace after a good start, raced outside the pace setter to the final turn, steadied when drifting out heading into the stretch and lacked a further run. LEADFOOTXPRESS raced evenly on the outside. JAFTJAM raced inside and was not a factor.
