Footnotes

NORTHWOOD FLYER settled early, progressed from outside on the backstretch to vie for the lead from path four on the second turn, jostled briefly with TAP THE GOLD at the top of the lane, dug in the last eighth and edged ahead in the waning yards. DOCTOR ROMANE broke outward and on top, shared the lead outside CHIEF FIRE WATER, stayed just off the inside taking the second bend, shook free briefly upper stretch but did not have enough left nearing the wire. TAP THE GOLD advanced toward the outside to press the early speed on the backstretch, made his bid between rivals on the second turn, tried to float out a bit as NORTHWOOD FLYER came in at the head of the lane, jostled briefly with the latter, ran evenly the last furlong but was easily best of the rest. MACHO LIBRE moved up just off the inside to be prominent on the backstretch, failed to keep up from path two leaving the second turn, altered outside upper stretch, had no late bid and was vanned off sore. CHIEF FIRE WATER displayed early speed from inside but tired on the second turn. SWAPIANO showed little in a ground-saving trip. There was a stewards' inquiry into the jostling that went on between NORTHWOOD FLYER and TAP THE GOLD upper stretch but no action was taken after their review.
