Footnotes

SEXY IN STILETTOS rated from outside, angled in entering the second turn, waited for room midway on that bend, got through two wide with a quarter mile left, fanned out some entering the lane, came to LIKE THE WIND upper stretch, was all out on even terms with that one the last furlong and edged ahead nearing the wire. LIKE THE WIND vied for the lead between horses from the beginning, moved clear and stayed just off the inside on the second bend, was challenged upper stretch, fought gamely but had to settle for second best. BASIN ST. HEIRESS four wide on the first bend, pressed from outside, angled in to be just off the inside entering the second turn, floated out some leaving that bend, came four wide into the lane, had every chance, could not close the gap on the leaders but proved easily best of the rest. GOLDEN CHAIN gradually angled in as she improved position on the backstretch, was three wide through the second bend, slowly altered in trying to stay clear of NOSEBIRD inside the last furlong and brushed with that one at the wire. NOSEBIRD was soon well back, picked up her pace between rivals after the first quarter mile, moved to the outside midway on the backstretch, was four wide taking the second turn, progressed to midstretch, began to tire after that, gradually lugged in and brushed with GOLDEN CHAIN at the finish. ONE HOT ANGEL void of speed along, or just off, the inside, was steadied when her path was taken near the half mile marker, saved ground through the second turn, altered out to swing around the fading WHATUSAYWHATUMEAN midstretch and had no late bid. WHATUSAYWHATUMEAN disputed the pace between horses from the beginning, was just off the inside on the backstretch, could not stay with LIKE THE WIND while along the rail on the second bend and gave way for the drive. FINISHRICH ON TIME reared in the gate and thrashed about from a sitting position, was soon upright, removed from the gate and okayed to race by the veterinarian, displayed brief speed from inside once the race began but steadily gave way once on the backstretch, lost contact with the field the last quarter mile and walked off. GAVITA stumbled at the start and lost her rider. There was a stewards' inquiry into GAVITA'S start but no action taken after their review. DUE TO A MALFUNCTION, THE FIRST QUARTER MILE FRACTION WAS UNAVAILABLE.
