Footnotes

SHREDDER set the early pace drawing clear in the first turn, was challenged down the backstretch, dueled into the second turn, lost the advantage into the stretch, battled back nearing the eighth pole to gain the advantage and was best late. HEARTSCORE stalked the early leader into the backstretch, moved up to be on even terms with the leader, dueled into the second turn, gained a short lead at the quarter pole, was challenged nearing the eighth pole and failed to last. REACH FOR IT chased the early leaders four wide, angled in along the inside through the stretch and lacked a gain. CHAR'S A WHOW was unhurried early racing four wide, sustained a mild bid in the stretch seven wide. SKIPRIANNA was allowed to settle early five wide, was the widest in the stretch and lacked a rally. ZEBBA was close in the early going racing off the inside then faded steadily. GUAJIRA was well back early saving ground and was not a factor.
