Footnotes

FACE THE BAND settled back early on, then launched a five wide rally on the far turn, reached the front in midstretch and quickly took over, then was let up on by the jockey late. RAYO DE PLATA was jostled and carried a bit wide on the first turn by a bearing out NINO ALEGRE, tracked the pace from near the inside down the backside, then found room three wide between horses into the lane to threaten but was simply no match for the winner. TOP HIT made a four wide bid to join the leaders at the half and battled into midstretch but proved no match for the top pair and weakened through the final furlong. NOVEL T DREAMER rated two wide around the turn into the lane and hung in the battle to the eighth pole but also weakened from there. EAGLE TIME raced four wide between on the second turn and offered no rally. NINO ALEGRE bore out badly on the first turn but straightened course down the backside, made a brief bid along the rail to get within reach midstretch but tired in the late stages. MR. DECATUR vied for the lead three wide between into the stretch but then tired.
