DEVIOUS WAYS was sent at once to the lead and quickly angled to the two path, took a clear lead through the stretch and held sway under a drive. ESPEEDYTOO was impeded slightly in the early going by the winner when that foe went for the inside path, recovered to bid four wide into the stretch and was gaining late. GRAY RYDER bid five wide into the stretch and made a mild gain. S'MORE SMOKE made a six wide bid entering the stretch but finished evenly. SKY SPRITE was fractious in the gate and then improved position inside. DANCING PROMISE passed tiring horses off the rail to pick up a check. CONTINENTAL SPICE saved ground to no avail. MISS HADLEY chased the winner three wide only to tire in the stretch. QUICKKEY chased the pace near the rail but was checked on the turn and gave way. The jockey of ESPEEDYTOO claimed foul against the winner alleging interference soon after the start. After a review the stewards ruled no change.
