Footnotes

TWELVE TWENTY TWO was unhurried into the first turn, went four wide down the backstretch, sustained a bid into the first turn, assumed command into the stretch and won easily. KAYCE ACE prompted the early pace from between foes, lost ground into the second turn then came back in the stretch but was no match for the winner. REMIT chased the early leaders along the inside, placed a mild bid in the stretch and was along for the show. PICK AND PRAY set the early pace racing off the rail, drew clear quickly, was challenged down the backstretch then gave way. PYRITE ON MY MIND dropped back to trail the field racing off the inside.
