Footnotes

DUALITY drew quickly clear angling in to save ground, held a safe advantage and proved best. SKIPPIN' THE STORM chased the early leader racing off the inside, sustained a bid in the stretch, drifted out five wide and was gaining late. ROY'S RICH LIZZI was unhurried early, began to rally five wide then drifted in through the stretch and gained the show. SMOKIN BADGE raced mid pack saving ground and lacked a late effort. FANCYDONTLETMEDOWN was forwardly placed early, went four wide and lacked a rally. JUST IMAGINE THAT was allowed to settle racing off the inside then weakened. TEXAS ANGEL was off slow, moved up to place a brief bid six wide then gave way. SOUTHERN HOTTIE was outrun early six wide, drifted out wide in the turn and was not a threat. BLUE JEAN'S WHO dropped back early, was carried wide in the turn and not a factor. There was a Stewards Inquiry and after reviewing the films it was determined there would be no change.
