Footnotes

LADY ELIZABETH was never far back, angled out four wide to advance after five furlongs then ran past the leaders with a flourish to win going away. AQUALINA was unhurried early, rallied late to be up for the place but was no match for the winner. OUR FAVORITE GAL stalked the pace inside, had to wait a bit for racing room leaving the second turn then after challenging into the stretch, weakened under pressure. CELESTIAL ART was roughed up at the break, made a middle move outside to the stretch then flattened out. ZUKU raced evenly. RED PRIDE chased the leader early, bid through the second turn then faltered in the drive. WHATARIOT vied for or chased the pace for six furlongs then faded. MS. ELSYOU came in at the break, vied for the lead to the second turn then stopped. LILLY BY LAD trailed. The portable inner rail was set at zero feet.
