Footnotes

EYES THE DUCHESS ducked out sharply leaving the gate, was guided back in then was well handled while bearing out badly on the first turn, was straightened out going down the backside, picked up her field on the second turn, assumed command and won as her rider pleased. JUANITA outrun into the stretch, rallied steadily five wide and was up for second. DEBARETTE bore out at the start, gained the advantage before six furlongs, was quickly headed by the winner and weakened. KATE'S LAW was through after six furlongs. STERRETTANIA offered a mild bid on the second turn and flattened out. PYRITE OR BUST set the pace under pressure for five furlongs, stopped, was eased and returned sore.
