Footnotes

BEAR'S A WINNAH close up along the rail from the start, was taken out three wide on the turn, rallied to engage LOUZADO at the top of the stretch, matched strides with that one to the wire, bumped that one late and was up in time. LOUZADO set a pressured pace into the stretch, drifted in a bit at the eighth pole, dug in gamely, was bumped nearing the wire and just missed hanging on. CRIMSON STREAK prompted the pace between horses into the turn, dropped along the rail, was in a bit tight at the eighth pole then again nearing the sixteenth pole then finished with good courage. SNACK DADDY pressed the pace three wide into the stretch then was outfinished. TURN N SING was a sharp threat into the stretch and faded late. KEYTOAWINNER trailed. The rider of CRIMSON STREAK lodged a claim of foul against the rider of LOUZADO for alleged interference in mid stretch. After reviewing the video tape replay the stewards took no action.
