Footnotes

HATCH had speed from the start, took back a bit nearing the half mile pole, angled out three wide on the second turn, rallied determinedly late and got up in the final strides. DA BIG DAWG hung five wide around the first turn, prompted the pace all the way, matched strides the length of the stretch and just missed. LAZYLOU CARSON set a pressured pace all the way and just missed hanging on despite a game effort. FIRE AT WILL never far back inside, swung widest of all entering the stretch then finished evenly. LARGEDOUBLEDOUBLED away alertly, dropped back to trail in the four path, was bumped by his stable mate entering the stretch then faded. VALENTINUS inside into the second turn, drifted out under left handed whipping entering the stretch, bumped his stable mate and failed to rally. ACTION AT THE TOP was hung four wide around the first turn, had speed for a half then stopped.
