Footnotes

ALL SNUFFED UP made the lead shortly after the start, dropped quickly towards the rail nearing the seven eighths pole, set the balance of the pace and drew off through the stretch under strong right handed urging to win as much the best. CLASSIC REWARD was carried out a bit at the start, settled within striking distance, rallied three wide late and finished clear for second. BRASS BUCKLE broke inward causing his rider to steady, rushed to contention while circling rivals on the first turn, chased the winner into the stretch then faded. REDO THE COURT bore out at the start, was shut off by the winner entering the first turn, saved ground and offered a mild bid into the stretch then came up empty. THREEQUARTER STAR had brief speed three wide.
