Footnotes

GALE WINDS taken in hand while reserved early, responded with a quick four wide move on the second turn, made the lead at the top of the stretch and drew off under a brisk hand ride. GREY BUNNY close up along the rail, angled out two wide on the second turn, bid into the stretch and finished clear for second. SCALD offered a mild bid into the stretch and outfinished others. SILENT SUNSET broke a step slow, rushed up to press the pace while outside on the first turn, remained a sharp threat for six furlongs then tired. MITSZI JOE away alertly, set a pressured pace until the top of the stretch then gave way. FASHIONABLY A LADY was no factor. HALO AND GOODBYE bobbled a the start then pulled up lame on the first turn.
