Footnotes

SAINT PARASKEVY outrun and trailed early, swung wide before the quarter pole, circled horses under left handed urging and was along in time. SHARP SURPRISE went up to battled for the lead before a half, alternated in setting and pressing a slow pace until deep stretch then could not handle the winner. MISS JULES battled for the lead along the inside while getting slow fractions and weakened the final sixteenth. SCALD vied for the lead between horses into the second turn then faded. SILENT SUNSET offered a mild bid before a half then came up empty. SUPERFINE TIME bid three wide on the second turn then stopped. FASHIONABLY A LADY was through early.
