Footnotes

DIAMOND LAD had speed from the start three wide, went up to battled for the lead on the turn, matched strides until mid stretch, opened a clear advantage and prevailed under right handed pressure. ALL ON ME trailed early, circled horses and was steadily cutting into the winner advantage. FISTICUFF chased the leader for five sixteenths, made the lead, battled until mid stretch then was outfinished. HIGH MAC was hustled from the gate and opened a clear advantage before a quarter, set the pace until just before the turn then gradually weakened. WOOD ALLEY away alertly, set the pace briefly then was through after a half.
