Footnotes

BANSHEE BRIDESMAID five wide early when back in the field, advanced three wide on the second turn, came out to bump MALIGN several times in upper stretch forcing that one out securing sufficient room to continue her rally then finished willingly to be up in time. EDELWEISS SONG forwardly placed from the start, challenged three wide on the second turn, drew clear in midstretch then held on gamely. LIGHT ON HER TOES reserved early, saved ground into the second turn, moved out between foes midway through the second turn, steadied when in tight near the quarter mile marker, lacked room behind a wall of horses with a furlong to go, dropped back then made a late bid. CLAMATO forwardly placed, moved up four wide on the second turn to a challenging position but weakened in the final furlong. BLINKIT closest to the pace while off the inside, engaged the leader with a half mile to go, held on well to the furlong marker and tired late. WILD WILLYS PHILLY never far back, moved closer on the second turn, held on well to inside the final furlong and tired. SCOTLAND PLACE angled in to the inside on the first turn when outrun, was no real threat. MALIGN six wide into the first turn, moved in to be five wide for the second turn and was no factor. FRISK ME LATER four wide early, could not menace. NO ITS FALSE set the pace along the inside, was in tight near the quarter mile marker when dropping back then faded. OATSVILLE was through early. HERE IS LEW had speed for a half.
