Footnotes

ADMIRE set the pace toward the inside, shifted in and tightened up GOLD 'N WHITE entering the stretch, kicked clear and drew away to score as the rider pleased. CALWILL made a long drive circling five wide and was fully extended to earn the place. GOLD 'N WHITE was shuffled back early, angled in and moved up along the inside, was caught in tight and checked near the seven-sixteenths pole, came again but failed to seriously threaten. KEFIRA broke a bit slow, was unhurried into stride, came six wide and improved position. LITTLE B'S ANGEL settled between horses, but came up empty leaving the turn and faded. RUREADYFORTHETRUTH saved ground to little avail. OUR PAINTED VEIL contended four wide but was through before going a half and dropped out. The jockey of GOLD 'N WHITE lodged an objection against ADMIRE for alleged interference near the seven-sixteenths pole, but following the review the Stewards made no change to the order of finish.
