Footnotes

TRIP carried seven wide on the first turn by a loose horse when forwardly placed, bid before a half, was carried seven wide into the second turn by that same loose horse, was eased back a bit and angled in, quick move to leaders soon after to challenge, gained a short lead with a furlong to go and drew clear under steady urging. LORIE DARLIN within striking distance, challenged three wide on the second turn, responded willingly when engaged by the winner on the approaching the stretch, was no match for that one late but held the place. UPON A THRON close up early along the inside, dropped back before a half, moved off the inside when advancing into the second turn but lacked a late bid. CLASS unhurried early three wide, came four wide out of the second turn but was no threat. DASHING LESLEY vied for the lead off the inside, held well to the quarter pole and tired. SOUTHERN TAPESTRY carried six wide on the first turn, recovered, gained a short lead before a half, held well to the stretch and gave way. SILK SAILS unhurried early along the inside, was no factor. ENDLESSLY five wide on the first turn when within striking distance, was carried eight wide into the second turn then faded. ASHER stumbled badly at the start unseating her rider.
