Footnotes

KELA'S HEAT set the pressured pace off of the inside, shook clear entering the stretch and widened. STORMIN HEDGES settled in hand, came four wide, finished well to prove second best but failed to threaten the winner. ZAPATON was unhurried into stride, circled six wide and was along for the show. EDEN SINNER attended the pace along the inside, checked nearing the furlong marker when DIXIE BAND MAN came in, altered course to the outside, came again with a mild rally but was left with too much to do. DIXIE BAND MAN prompted the pace three wide, weakened between horses, drifted in a bit inside the three-sixteenths pole, was straightened away quickly and faded. TRIPLE QUIZ contended between horses to the stretch and tired. BRESLAUER broke in the air and was never a factor. GO FOR FOUR BUDDY was through early. STORMS DIRTY DAN showed little.
