Footnotes

ZIGAWATT outrun for a half, commenced his rally off the inside leaving the backstretch, came out four wide entering the stretch and closed fast to be clear. ROWANS PARK close up three wide, challenged on the second turn and held on gamely while not able to withstand the winner's late bid. SISYPHUS vied for the lead along the inside, dropped back a bit before a half, came again to challenge on the second turn but tired late. NAFASS within striking distance along the inside, moved closer on the second turn but lacked a late bid. EAGLE TIME three wide on the first turn when within striking distance, maintained good position for six furlongs and weakened. EARLY BIRD BERT unhurried off the inside, saved ground on the second turn and was no real threat. SUBSCRIBER four wide on the first turn, raced close up to the three furlong marker and gave way. PRINCE KONG vied for the lead off the inside, took over before a half, stayed on well to the stretch and tired while being vanned off following the race. GERI'S KID was outrun.
