Footnotes

NINETY FIVE SOUTH stalked the pace four wide, quickened once straightened for the drive, reeled in the leader inside the furlong marker and edged clear late. KITCHENMAN sped clear to set the pace, widened through the turn, kept on well but was unable to resist the winner. COVER BOY was allowed to settle, circled six wide to make his bid and continued on to earn the show. ROCKY BEAR settled in hand, came five wide to make a mild bid but lacked the needed late response. GRUENEWALD lagged well back, tucked in to save ground, split horses but found his best stride too late. ASTAIRE was allowed to settle in mid pack and failed to respond. WILDWOOD WINNER was never a factor. FLYING WARRIOR passed only the tiring ones. PAVORATTI'S SOUL attended the pace along the inside, but came up empty leaving the turn and faded. ASPEN BREEZE was forwardly placed for a half and retreated. G AREYOUKIDDING hopped at the start and showed little thereafter.
