Footnotes

WITH DISTINCTION away alertly, went up and dueled to deep stretch, shook free under steady pressure and drew clear in the final sixteenth. SGT. BERT went up four wide to battle for lead to the turn, stuck his head front at the quarter pole, stayed with the winner to deep stretch but could match strides late and settled for second best. YUCATAN closest to pace from inside, stayed well to the stretch but faded through the final furlong. SILVER DOLLAR failed to menace. THIRD HALF lacked the late response needed. BLAZING EXPLOIT had good early speed from the rail but was through early. ESPRIT DU ROI (CHI) got caught in tight soon after the start clipping heels and unseating his rider.
