Footnotes

YASOU was unhurried early, went six wide in the drive, closed steadily and drew clear past the sixteenth pole in a driving. LLORON JOTACE (CHI) set the pace, was under pressure in the stretch drive, faltered near the sixteenth pole but held safely for place. DADDY'S VISION raced mid pack, went five wide entering the stretch, bid between horses to threaten for the lead but didn't have enough late. RAKE AND A RAMBLER had a shoe repair in the paddock, saved ground to the turn, eased out and offered a mild bid only. CAT BRANDO raced close to the pace, rallied three wide on the turn to challenge, vied for the lead, weakened late and dropped back. BLAZE AND GLORY was unhurried early and was outrun in a wide trip. GUSTAVO was hustled along, pressed the pace in hand to the second turn and stopped.
