Footnotes

CASA O raced mid pack, went five wide entering the stretch, closed steadily and got up late. THE BARTON BOY vied outside, began to inch away past the eighth pole and was outclosed to finish second best. I'M THE IRISH MAN raced between horses to the second turn, vied to the sixteenth pole and faltered. PURSUXIT broke sharply, vied inside to the second turn and flattened out. ADVICE was slow early while racing outside and improved position in an even effort. IRISH ROVER broke awkwardly and was crowded at the start, stalked the pace and was through after a half. LANG FIELD bobbled at the start and was not a factor.
