Footnotes

ROCKET PLUS raced in the second flight outside, challenged four across on the far turn, closed steadily under left handed urging, assumed command near the sixteenth pole and inched clear late. DASHBOARD DRUMMER was never far off the pace, challenged three wide between horses on the turn, vied through the stretch and yielded grudgingly near the wire. SANDYNECK vied inside, inched away for a short lead entering the stretch, yielded near the sixteenth pole and just lasted for show. LATINO MIX lagged, bid five wide, found his best stride late and was gaining ground. LOOKN EAST vied two across to the second turn, fell back and faded from contention. KRIS COLUMBUS was unhurried while saving ground, eased out for the drive and offered a mild bid only. FOR DADDY was outrun in a rail trip. ALWAYS ROYAL was never a factor and vanned off.
