Footnotes

MOBIUS was well placed down the backstretch, lodged his bid nearing the top of the stretch, took a clear lead then drifted out late and held on while making contact with the runner-up on or shortly after the wire. GRAND TOPPER saved ground on the turn and was patiently handled waiting for an opening, took the three path in the stretch, lodged his bid and finished well to just miss while making contact with the winner. DRYDEN was four wide on the turn, came five wide into the stretch and lacked a solid bid. GONGING WILD set the early pace to midway on the turn, resisted when challenged then weakened late. OCTOBER ROAD raced three wide in the second flight down the backstretch, was four wide into the stretch and lacked a bid. FARMER GILES (IRE) was rushed along the rail down the backstretch to enter contention in the run to the turn, was through after a half and tired in the drive. IRISH MONARCH was never in contention and trailed throughout.
