Footnotes

EDGERIN J settled after the start, circled five wide into the stretch and gamely prevailed after a long drive. GRANDPA ROY moved up on the far turn and lodged his bid near the quarter pole, took a short lead late between calls but couldn't contain the winner. SALADO TRIBE stalked the leader down the backstretch, held a striking position in upper stretch then lacked the needed response. FIRST STRIKE was four wide on the far turn, lodged his bid nearing the quarter pole but didn't have enough through the drive. WOWIE MAUI jumped up at the break but quickly recovered and set the pace to the stretch then tired the final furlong.
