Footnotes

CLAIM THE THRONE vied for the lead then dueled through the stretch and prevailed in the final strides. DEROUIN was three deep down the backstretch while not far back, lodged his bid near the quarter pole, dueled the winner through the drive and just missed. RANDOM GENIUS steadied briefly when pocketed into the turn, made a four-wide move into contention nearing the quarter pole, lodged his bid but didn't have enough late. GOLDEN JIVE was five wide on the turn and six wide into the stretch then gained some ground late. ELBE was allowed to settle early, took the three path into the stretch and lacked a solid bid. SLASHIN TIGER was in good position in the run to the turn, took the two path into the stretch then lacked a bid. KICKAPOLE vied for the lead from along the rail into the stretch then weakened. TOP TAKE was four deep into the turn, then five wide into the stretch and tired. PEM BRO saved ground to no avail.
