Footnotes

SECRET RITE opened up a commanding seven length lead at the half mile pole, began to come back to the field after entering the stretch, shortened stride beginning to tire at the furlong marker, but held the pace position to the wire while placed in mid track. GOING COUNTRY stalked the lone pace horse rated third for a half mile, rallied leaving the turn, then gained second in the final sixteenth of the drive. I'LL DELIVER dropped to last well off the pace, closed up at mid turn coming to the quarter pole, rallied down the stretch, and secured the clear show position in deep stretch. MY LUCKY DUCK raced evenly, but posed no menace to the top finishers in the race. DIALIC pressed the pace for five eighths of a mile, but came up empty thereon to the wire. SENORITA BOLG was never a factor.
