Footnotes

ANGELIC FIDDLER stalked the pace, bid willingly, dueled for the lead and drew off inside the sixteenth pole in a driving finish. TIGHT END was away well to set the pace, responded when challenged to duel, drifted out despite right handed urging, yielded late and finished second best. YES HE'S A PISTOL was unhurried early, went six wide entering the stretch and was along for show. DANNY JAMES broke a bit slowly, was taken outside, stalked the pace to the stretch and gave way. STRUM BUM showed speed to the turn, faltered and steadily faded from contention. REDNECK HEARTBREAK had brief speed only and showed little.
