Footnotes

CHESTER'S DUE trailed and six wide into the lane, finished gamely while prevailing at the wire. CLAY W. WOODSTOCK lodged a bid on the turn, raced four wide into the stretch and battled for command, held a narrow advantage nearing the wire then just missed. CABO KERRY moved to the front three wide on the turn, battled inside through the lane and yielded grudgingly. ENGINEER was in the two path turning for home when steadied off heels then finished willingly. ESTANCIA in tight at the start, chased on the turn and raced five wide into the stretch then lacked the needed response. BOB JILA vied for the lead just off the inside and weakened in the drive. ROSIE'S BIG SKY vied for command from along the inside, weakened through the lane then was vanned off.
