Footnotes

BROTHER SY was well in hand during the early going, casually got into the race going to the third last jump, rallied going down the hill heading toward the last jump, had dead aim on the leader jumping the last, and drew clear from there. ALMARMOOQ was unhurried for the first mile, but was always in striking distance with the leaders, dueled with his entry mate between the third and second last, then took the lead after that jump and had a clear lead going to the last, then gave way after that jump. GREAT HALO was in contention until the second last jump then tired. HERE COMES BADNESS stalked the leader for the first two miles, then took command, then stopped after the second last. YIN YANG was through after two miles. J. ALFRED PRUFROCK raced in the back and was no factor here. FORT HENRY (IRE) trailed the field and was pulled up four fences from home.
