P. L. HENRY, prominent from the outset, led the way into the turn, was engaged in a duel briefly, drove clear at the top of the stretch then finished best under a hand ride. HAILSTONE settled quickly, was blocked briefly at the turn, hustled to the stretch then finished fast and was gaining on the winner. TRELAWNY, up close outside rivals, bid early turn, dueled then was headed at the top of the stretch, chased to the late stages and flattened out. MR FULLER, up close early, chased on the turn then evened out in the stretch. LOVEYOUALLTHETIME was close early along the rail, was driving up the inside then came out at the turn bumping MAX'S KITKAT and checking hard, then showed little to the end. MAX'S KITKAT was hustled to a short lead then dueled into the turn, was bumped at the turn and checked hard, then trailed to the end. A STEWARDS' INQUIRY INTO THE INCIDENT AT THE TURN RESULTED IN THE DISQUALIFICATION AND SIXTH PLACING OF LOVEYOUALLTHETIME FOR INTERFERING WITH MAX'S KITKAT.

Winner sold through Keeneland Association, Inc.
