Footnotes

BLACK CASH was unhurried early between horses, angled out midway through the turn and made a quick move, assumed command in upper stretch and quickly opened a clear lead, was under steady urging to the wire and much the best. THE FED was allowed to settle inside of rivals, roused in the second turn and closed willingly, but was no match for the winner. CATAHOULA PARISH was void of early speed, roused inside of rivals in the second turn and finished with a late rally. MT. SASSAFRAS was off slowly and unhurried early outside of rivals, continued off the rail in the turn and finished with a mild rally. ONE WAY LOVE showed good early speed and dueled for the lead along the rail then weakened in the stretch. FANCY TOUCH was in hand dueling for the early lead then tired in the stretch and dropped back. MADAM DU BARRI was void of early speed, roused along the rail, made a mild bid, but was never a threat. A FLEETS DANCER was allowed to settle just off the rail, but never rallied. PARENTAL PRESSURE broke slowly and was rank between horses in the first turn, dropped back in the backstretch and was never a threat. MALIBU WESLEY raced close up just off the rail, then faded in the stretch.
