ARTIC FERN stalked the pacesetter in hand, was patient on the final turn, moved to the leader just into the final furlong and drew clear under that same hand ride. CATCH THE LUCK, unhurried early, closed five-wide late turn then finished determinedly to no avail. TRUE METROPOLITAN led quickly, set a reserved pace, was hustled from upper stretch, was challenged in the final furlong and failed to stay. GOOD GENERAL stalked the pace, edged closer nearing the far turn, chased to the stretch then evened out. KENNISIS RIVER, rated midpack, chased four-wide into the stretch then evened out. BRONZE BARBARIAN, unhurried to the far turn, was hustled to the stretch but never reached contention.
