Footnotes

FRIENDLY PIONEER set the early pace in hand just off the rail, drew clear approaching the far turn, continued strong in the drive and held a clear advantage to the wire under steady pressure. ONCE UPON A TWINE was in hand three wide, roused entering the stretch and finished well, but was second best. OH LIVIA D. was unhurried early, roused in the two path on the turn and finished with a mild bid. EBONY COUNTESS stalked the early pace between horses, then weakened in the final furlong. SHALL O MAR stalked the early pace inside of rivals, then tired in the stretch and dropped back. EXPLOSIVE AMY bobbled at the start and was void of early speed between horses, never rallied and was never a threat. STEPHANIE'S WAGER saved ground to no avail. TRICKY MOMENT was unhurried early and never a factor.
