Footnotes

A FLEETS DANCER was allowed to settle just off the rail, made a quick move four wide on the turn and assumed command in upper stretch, then drew clear under intermittent urging. TARQUINIUS was void of early speed in the three path, swung wide in upper stretch and closed willingly well off the rail. GROUND STORM was fanned four wide in the first turn, drew even in the backstretch and vied for the lead, opened a length advantage on the turn, could not hold off the winner in the drive and just failed for place. PAROSE stalked the early pace three wide and lacked a late response. LIL PERSONALITEE was hustled along inside of rivals, but never rallied and was never a factor. SIR FREDERICK was close up between horses, then dropped back after four furlongs. SICK AS A PARROT (GB) was well rated on a short lead, then faded in the stretch and was outrun. SEEK SMARTLY showed good early speed in hand, then faded in the stretch.
