Footnotes

REDCARPETTREATMENT stalked the forced pace from the inside, came through to gain command in upper stretch and prevailed. CRUMPET stalked the forced pace from off the rail, gained in the stretch to be second best. SCREEN HAPPY stalked the forced pace four wide, gained mildly three wide. SECRET RUSH set a pressured pace from off the rail, gave way in upper stretch. CASSIA was well back inside, advanced mildly four wide in the stretch. AMERICAN IN PARIS had a short lead early, pressed the pace outside of SECRET RUSH, weakened into the stretch, was steadied at the eighth pole. WAGER'S JOY reared at the break, passed a tired one. BUCQUISTA stalked the forced pace three wide, dropped back on the turn. A Stewards' inquiry following the race looking into the start determined that WAGER'S JOY did not receive a fair start and was therefore considered a non-starter.
