Footnotes

BOLD CANADIAN up on the pace and 3-wide, pressed rivals through the turn then drew off with authority as much the best. KING OF THE SWAMP settled off the pace, split foes in early stretch, kept coming with a rail bid and finished well. WHERE'S THE FIRE dueled outside of rival then was between foes on the turn, chased the winner in the drive and proved best of rest. RUBEN SQUIRES off the early pace, closed ground and bid from the 4-path in the run to the wire and finished willingly. IWILLGOTOTHEMOON broke slow, gained ground and was widest into the stretch, bid from there but did not have enough. MOBIL FORUM stalked the speed battle in a good trip then lacked a serious rally. MY KNIGHT INDEED was not a factor while trailing then passing a tired one. VICTORY LAUNCH dueled inside and was a factor turning for home then had nothing left to give.
