Footnotes

BRISTOL BABE was void of early speed just off the rail, swung wide in upper stretch and drew even in the final seventy yards, then prevailed under strong pressure. ROSANA'S INTENTION was in hand between horses, dropped back on the turn, then angled out in the drive and assumed command in the final furlong, but could not hold off the winner. SHADIE SADIE vied for the early lead inside of rivals, then weakened in the stretch. COMBO DELUXE set a pressured pace between horses, then tired. DAY vied for the early lead three wide, then weakened on the turn. FIVE O' TEA was void of early speed and distanced.
