Footnotes

BELLA GATTO was off a step slow, saved ground to the 1/4 pole, angled out in upper stretch and was full of run. JULIE'S WITT was hustled along pressing the pace, assumed command in upper stretch, but was unable to hold off the winner. ANNIE'S SWEEP was away alertly and set the pace off the rail, gave way in upper stretch and dropped back. BOLD MIST stalked the pace 3 wide, but lacked a late response. SWING BOLDLY stalked the early pace between horses, then tired. ST. NORAS was void of early speed, never rallied and was outrun.
