Footnotes

RETREAT NOT tried to rate off the lead into the backstretch, lodged his bid into the far turn, opened a long lead into the stretch then had enough left to last at the finish. SUNSET KID was five wide around the first turn, raced seven deep near the middle of the track down the backstretch, came seven wide into the stretch and finished well to be gaining on the winner. RED NECK BILL was between foes in the two path on the far turn, stayed inside for the drive and finished well while gaining on the winner but missed the place. JAMES CREEK RED was four wide on the far turn, came five wide into the stretch then lacked a solid late bid. VAN BUREN was six deep down the backstretch, came seven wide into the stretch and lacked a bid. THINKIN BOUT BLAKE vied for the lead the opening half, fell back on the far turn and lacked a further response. SINCY'S WONDER settled after the start, was along the rail nearing the stretch when lacking room then lacked a bid once clear. BLAZE'N LIGHT was five deep down the backstretch, came six wide into the stretch then was not a serious threat. HEAVENLY HONOR was just off the early pace through the opening half, lodged his bid midway on the far turn then tired through the stretch. MER FLOWER (ARG) tried to rate after the start, was blocked behind horses at the top of the stretch then lacked a response once clear. SHOOT OUT lagged after the start then fell far back into the backstretch and never entered contention. SENATOR BOWDEN vied for the early lead, took a short lead into the far turn then stopped in the stretch. This race was hand timed.
